

ORDER OF OMEGA

DIFFERENT LETTERS. SHARED PURPOSE.

RECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE

Leadership and character are the foundation of Order of Omega and our purpose is to recognize outstanding leaders in our communities.

Service is a fundamental component of fraternal organizations. Order of Omega chapters give back and participate in a variety of projects and experiences.

Membership is open to all councils. We honor and celebrate leaders in NPHC, IFC, MGC, NALFO, NPC, NAPA, United or Independent governing councils.

ABOUT ORDER OF OMEGA

We are a leadership honor society for members of Fraternity & Sorority organizations, recognizing students who exemplify high standards in leadership, scholarship, character, service, and involvement within their campus communities.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Membership is open to sophomore, junior, and senior members of a fraternity/sorority. Applicants must be in good standing at the institution where a chapter exists. Order of Omega chapters can only accept the top 5% of the FSL community per academic year.

MEMBER BENEFITS

Joining Order of Omega helps enhance your organizational leadership skills. Members also have scholarship opportunities, leadership role openings, and most importantly, members are recognized as exemplary FSL community leaders.

GREEK LEADERS. RECOGNIZED HERE.

SCHOLARSHIPS & FELLOWSHIPS

Order of Omega offers undergraduate scholarships and graduate fellowships for members each year. You can find applications and guidelines on our website.

STUDENT BOARD MEMBER

Each year, one undergraduate member is selected to be the voice for all undergraduate Order of Omega members by serving on our Board of Directors and offering insight and guidance from their perspective. Watch for the application for this prestigious position on our website.

CASE STUDIES

During regional conferences like SGLA, NGLA, and AFLV, Order of Omega hosts case study competitions where students can showcase their leadership and knowledge, and -if placing in top three positions- win monetary awards.
